You have your calories and protein from the calculator. Here's the workout plan that goes with them for the next 4 weeks.

4 workouts a week, about 35 minutes each. You need a sturdy chair, a thick towel, a door that opens away from you, a backpack, and a mat or folded blanket.

Your 5 daily checkboxes

Box	What it means
☐ Calories hit	Close to the number from the calculator
☐ Protein hit	Build every meal around chicken, fish, eggs or tokwa
☐ Workout done	4 days a week
☐ 7,000 steps	Your phone counts them
☐ 7 hours of sleep	Pick a bedtime and stick to it

THE 80% RULE

Tick 26 of your 32 boxes a week and you get most of the result. Miss one? Start again at your next meal. Never "next Monday."

Warm-up, 4 minutes: march in place for a minute, 10 arm circles each way, 10 leg swings each leg, 10 slow chair squats.

How to do each exercise

Chair Squat

Set up. Stand in front of a chair. Feet shoulder-width apart, toes pointing out a little.

Move. Sit back until your butt touches the chair. Don't sit down fully. Stand back up by pushing through your feet.

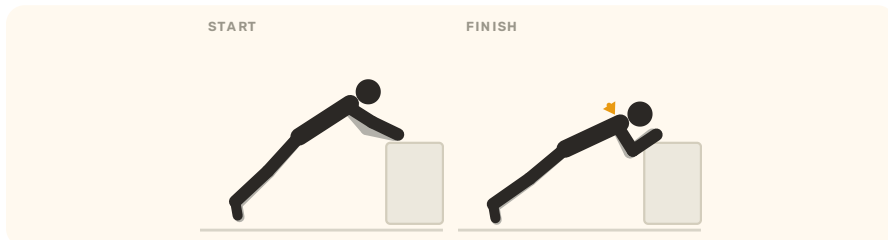

Watch for. Knees falling inward. Push them out so they point the same way as your toes.

Easier: Put a pillow on the chair.

Harder: Do the Squat without the chair.

Table Push-Up

PUSH

Set up. Hands on the edge of a sturdy table or kitchen counter, a bit wider than your shoulders. Walk your feet back until your body is one straight line.

Move. Lower your chest to the edge. Elbows point back a little, not straight out. Push back up.

Watch for. Hips sagging. Squeeze your butt and it fixes itself.

Easier: Push-up against a wall.

Harder: Use a lower surface, then try floor push-ups.

Hip Lift

BUTT

FINISH

Set up. Lie on your back, knees bent, feet flat and hip-width apart, heels close to your butt.

Move. Push through your heels and lift your hips until your body is straight from knees to shoulders. Squeeze your butt for 1 second. Lower.

Watch for. Arching your lower back at the top.

Easier: Don't lift as high.

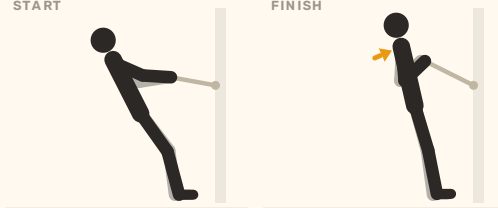

Harder: One-Leg Hip Lift, or a loaded backpack on your hips.

Towel Row

BACK

FINISH

Set up. Tie a big knot in one end of a thick towel. Put the knot on the far side of a door that opens AWAY from you, in the gap by the hinges, at chest height. Close and lock the door. Never use a lever handle. Hold the towel, lean back with straight arms. Test with a small lean first.

Move. Pull your chest to your hands. Squeeze your shoulder blades together. Lower slowly.

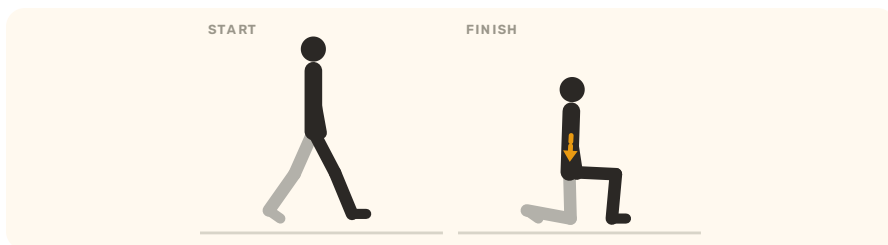

Watch for. A door that opens toward you, or a lever handle. Either can give way.

Easier: Stand more upright.

Harder: Walk your feet closer to the door so you lean back more.

Split Squat

LUNGE

Set up. Take a big step forward. Back heel up. Hold a wall or chair if you need to.

Move. Go straight down until your back knee almost touches the floor. Push up with your front foot. Do all your reps on one side, then switch.

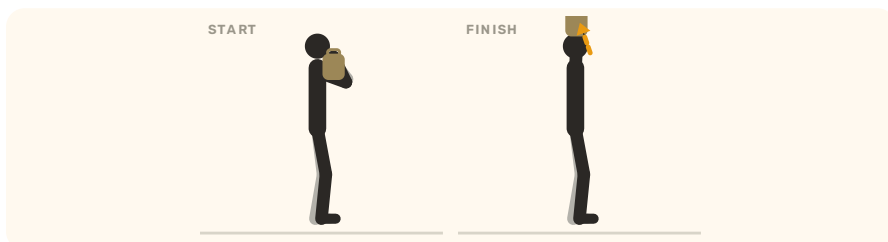

Watch for. Front heel lifting. Keep your whole front foot flat.

Easier: Only go halfway down.

Harder: Do the Step-Back Lunge.

Backpack Press

SHOULDERS

Set up. Stand holding a loaded backpack at your shoulders.

Move. Push it straight up until your arms are next to your ears. Lower it slowly.

Watch for. Leaning back. Ribs down, butt tight.

Easier: Lighter bag.

Harder: Heavier bag, or try the Tent Push-Up.

Plank

Set up. Forearms on the floor, elbows under your shoulders. Legs straight, on your toes.

Move. Hold your body in one straight line. Squeeze your butt, pull your ribs down, breathe.

Watch for. Holding a saggy plank longer. 30 good seconds beat 90 saggy ones.

Easier: Knees down.

Harder: Lift one foot for half the time, then switch.

Dead Bug

FINISH

Set up. Lie on your back. Arms straight up. Knees bent at a right angle above your hips. Press your lower back flat into the floor.

Move. Slowly lower one arm behind your head and the opposite leg out straight, until both almost touch the floor. Breathe out. Come back and switch sides.

Watch for. Lower back lifting. Don't reach as far.

Easier: Move only your legs.

Harder: Hold a 1-litre bottle in each hand.
